I saw one butterfly
sitting on my thumb
She flew away
and then there were none.

127. Handwriting – Years 1 and 2 (aged 5-7 years)

An extract from Zog by Julia Donaldson

Madame Dragon ran a school, many moons ago.
She taught young dragons all the things that dragons need to know.
Zog, the biggest dragon, was the keenest one by far.
He tried his hardest every day to win a golden star.

128. Handwriting – Years 3 and 4 (aged 7-9 years)

Divorced, beheaded, died,
Divorced, beheaded, survived.
Old Cath from Spain was number one,
She tried so very hard to give Henry a son,
When this failed and she started to age,
Henry's emotions turned from sadness to rage,
He started to plan a possible divorce,
But had to ask the Pope's permission, of course!

129. Handwriting – Years 5 and 6 (aged 9-11 years)

An extract from Escape from Pompeii by Christina Balit

On a hillside overlooking the sparkling bay of Naples, the Roman city of Pompeii glimmered in the sunlight.

From his window, young Tranio listened to the noise humming from bars, taverns and shops around him, and to the busy tradesmen haggling in the streets below. Beyond the massive city walls he could see Pompeii's greatest protector looming in the distance. They called it Vesuvius, the Gentle Mountain.

Could anyone feel safer than here, Tranio wondered? Was anything more beautiful?

130. Handwriting – aged 12 to 16 years.

January in Richmond by Grace Gant

The bleakest, the cruellest
Month in the chill
No sign of the sweet hearted Lass of the Hill
Just stony faced buildings
Stony faced frowns
Harshest of months in the harshest of towns

Across the cobbles
The shops are closed
The market cross stands prone, exposed
To winter torture
Winds and gales
Sleet, blizzards, rain and hail

Oh Richmond hearts
Beat strong and stout
To see this winter monster out

131. Adult Handwriting. First prize given by Mrs S Restall “to support a dying art”.

Excerpt from Life & Tradition in the Yorkshire Dales by Marie Hartley & Joan Ingilby

At Muker Awd Roy, Swaledale, possibly a twelfth night celebration, taking place on the Wednesday before Old Christmas Day, 6th January, it was customary for eight or ten men to go round with an apron into which food was thrown and taken to the inns.

Seventy years ago stalls exhibited fruit, toys, drapery and knick-knacks, whilst Awd Spice Mary of Reeth crying her wares loudly sold spice loaf and sweets at three halfpence a time.

On Thursday outdoor games taking place were lowping (jumping), two hitches and three hitches, hipsy-gipsy, cat-gallows (a kind of hurdle race), pole jumping, trotting races and shooting at loaning (lane). It was a time for the general collection of accounts by doctors, badgers and all tradesmen.
